Hypocricy Exposed - David Beera's

AMOS LAYMAN, Sec'y.

It has been the cry of the Republicans tha they did not want to divide the people into parties at the coming election, but that all should unite on one Union ticket. To show how utterly hypocritical are these professions, we publish the following resolution offered in the Fusion County Convention of this county, by DAVID BEERS, one of the delegates from Mifflin ernment and Constitution by "fauatical agitators North and South," and for which the old National Union Democracy "are in no way responsible."

responsible."

This resolution, which proposed to accomplish just what these men professed, was smuggled away, and the Convention not allowed to vote on it. The tricksters in the Convention were thus exposed. They well knew that every candidate on the Union Democratic ticket was a sound Union man, and that if allowed to answer would expose their insincerity, and render it.

The Democracy never deserted their galiant men in the field, and never will; and when they leave flome, kindred and friends, they well know from the past, that the Democracy will stand by them, and never tell their enemies "to welcome them with bloody hands to hospitable graves."

The second resolution reads: 2. Resolved, That in this national emergency, the Democracy and other Union men of Ohio, banishing all feeling of passion or resentment, will recoilect only their duty to the whole country; that this war should not be waged in any spirit of oppression, nor for any purpose of conquest or subjugation, nor purpose of everthrow-ing or interfering with the rights or established nstitutions of the State, but to defend and maintain the supremacy of the Constitution, and to preserve the Union with all the dignity, equality, and rights of the several States unimpaired, and that as soon as these objects are ac omplished, the war ought to cease.

Are Democrats to blame for "banishing all as they have by laying down their lives on the field of battle, and paying their taxes to support the army? Does this look like giving "aid and comfort to the enemy?" We think not The following is the second resolution adopt

The only difference in these resolutions is that that adopted by the Union Democratic Convention contains the following words, "THE DEMOCRACY AND OTHER UNION MEN OF OHIO," which, of course, would not be proper in a resolution adopted by the Fusion Convention.

The third resolution reads as follows: 3. The fifth resolution expresses the heartfelt thanks of the Democracy to our gallant men of the army who have so nobly gone to the field to try and remedy the great wrong done our Government.

Under or dinary circumstances, to be nominated for the highest office in the glift of the people of the State in the Union, by a Convention so numerously attended and representing so large and respectable a portion of the people of the State, would be a mark of respect and confidence of which any citizen might well feel proud; but in view of the extraordinary and alarming state of affairs in which we are placed, to be indicated by any considerable portion of my fellow citizens as a suitable person to discharge the duties which must devolve son to discharge the duties which must devolve upon the Executive of this State, is the highest

In one section of the country a rebellion exists—the laws of the land are put at defiance—the Union of the States ignored—the Constitution set aside, and another, at once the offspring of and spology for this rebellion, sought to be substituted in its stead. In the prosecution of their designs, the parties instigating and leading this rebellion have select upon the property of our own Government, driven its officers and soldiers from their posts of duty, and by armed violence have sought to humiliate our flag and to overnwe the Government. These parties had, no doubt, carefully calculated the chances of success, and, having no sympathy in common with the great body of their people, determined, at all heaveds and at any cost of treasure and of blood, to attempt the execution of their In one section of the country a rebellion exand of blood, to attempt the execution of their unwise and wicked purpose. " Ted and Victory "

Under this head, the Hancock Jeffersonian, a Republican paper, in the issue of June 29th, 1860, published the following :

"Top and Victory."-- It will be recollected that a Democratic member of the Ohio Legislature presented a bill last winter making it a Penitentiary offense for mechanics to strike for higher wages, and that after this obnoxious measure had been most thoroughly exposed by Plants, of Meige, a Republican member, the in-dividual who presented it, admitted that it had been framed by Hor. David Tod, and at his suggestion had been submitted to the Legisla-ture, Tod being an extensive manufacturer.— Large meetings of mechanics were held immedistely afterwards in a great number of our large cities, and Tod was denounced in the severest terms. Well, this same Davy Tod was called to preside at Baltimore, upon the resignation of Cushing, and the telegraph says "took the chair amidst loud applause," a very fine compliment to our industrious mechanics! He will, no doubt, take the stump and rant during the campaign, no little, in regard to popular

It will be seen by the news in to day's paper, that President Lincoln has countermanded that part of General Fremont's proclamation of martial law in Missouri, which declares that all slaves of persons proven to be engaged in rebellion, shall be iree on proof thereof being made. This action of the President is condemned by a large portion of the Republicans, and some of their presess speak of it in terms of great bitterness. In case the war fails to go forward with desirable success, it is not difficult to foresee that the President will again find himself confronted by a class of men who will demand that he shall canction the course proposed by Fremont or yield the prerogatives of It will be seen by the news in to day's paper, demand that he shall sanction the course pro-posed by Fremont or yield the prerogatives of Unief Magistrate to some one else. Whilst this is the President's difficulty in the North, he realizes the danger of alienating the Union men of the South by adopting the Greeley Beecher policy which Fremont took the responsibility of initiating. The letter of Hon. Joseph Holt to the President shows with what abhorrence he looks on that policy. Aside from the wishes looks on that policy. Aside from the wisher which Union men of the South may have in re gard to sudden emancipation, the people of the free States are deeply interested in it. As a matter of course, the freedom of the negroes of the second States will never be recognized by said States after the war is over. Hence, in order to render emancipation effective, the free negroes must come North. Is this to be an other of the blessings which the white laborers of Ohio are to derive from the wicked refusal of the "No-party" Republicans to adopt a com-

D' A distinguished Republican, approwith regard to an army contract, the other day very sensibly remarked that the Republicans o the North were seeking, as it seemed to him, to make all they could out of the Government; but the men of the South were contributing all they could to the cause of rebellion. If this speculative feeling among the Republicans goes on, the distinguished gentleman said, we need not be surprised if some men make fortunes and the South whip us like bell.—Indianapolis

Facts are Stubbern Things! Hear what the Philadelphia correspondent says in the Commonwealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of April "Commonwealth," Wilmington, Delaware, 9th of April, 1859;

"An English gentleman, formerly connected with the British Army, and who styles himself the 'Indian Botanic Physician,' has of late gained an extensive reputation here by his skill in curring all manner of complaints. Some of his patients I have congered with, and they pronounce his remedies and mode at treatment as very superior. Some have been restored as if hy magic. The medicine he uses is distilled by himself from various herha possessing rare curative properties.

"While acting in the army he devoted his leisure moments to a thorough study of the effects preduced by certain medicinal roots and herts on all manner of discases. It seems he has found a sure and speedy remedy for all the 'llis that flesh is heir to.' His practice is already extensive and is daily increasing. In the complaints to which Females are subjected, he has no equal, as a large number here have testified that they owe not only their present good health, but their lives, to the skill of this Indian Botanic Physician."
